

THE COLLABORATIVE COUNCIL OF THE REDWOOD EMPIRE
AND
COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE
TRAINERS

Present

MASTERY OF COLLABORATIVE
PRACTICE
2009 TRAINING

Case Debriefing, Collaborative Values, and Developing as a Collaborative Practitioner

for lawyers, mental health and financial professionals

on November 21, 2009

Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
CSU East Bay Conference Center
1000 Broadway, Oakland

Topics will include:

- Debriefing in depth
- When cases fall out
- Collaborative values, beliefs and attitudes
- Practice development
 - Training
 - Public education
 - Transitioning to a collaborative practice
 - Marketing plan

This class includes seven hours of instruction, composed of work in pairs and small groups, role plays, brief lectures, large and small group discussions, demonstrations, and reflection.

COLLABORATIVE
PRACTICE

Resolving Disputes Respectfully.

Each class is taught by a selection from Collaborative Practice Trainers faculty:

*Catherine Conner, collaborative attorney and mediator
Margaret L. Anderson, collaborative attorney and mediator
Randy Cheek, MFT, collaborative coach and child specialist
Barbara Bowen, LCSW, collaborative coach and child specialist
Susan Campbell, CFP, CDFA, financial specialist*

ENROLLMENT FEE: $250 for one day training.
Early bird registrations received before October 27, 2009 at $225.
CCRE members pay $200 with early bird registration.
Cancellations before November 10, 2009 receive refund except for $50 administration fee.
No refunds thereafter.

The provider is a State Bar of California approved MCLE and family law specialization provider; BBS CEUs will also be provided. No prior collaborative experience is required.

Limited to 50 participants

Box lunches or salads will be provided at each class, with mid-morning and mid-afternoon beverages; lunch choices will be taken before each class.

To reserve your place, please forward this registration form and your check payable to COLLABORATIVE PRACTICE TRAINERS to:

Sandra Torquemada
The Collaborative Practice Center
829 Sonoma Avenue
Santa Rosa, CA 95404

Case Debriefing, Collaborative Values, and Developing as a Collaborative Practitioner – Nov. 21, 2009

Name _____ Profession _____

Address _____

E-mail _____ Phone: _____

Any special accommodations needed: _____

Questions about registration: Sandra Torquemada, Collaborative Practice Trainers administrator, (sandrat@sonic.net or (707)546-4677. Questions about the program: Catherine Conner (cconner@clr829.com) or (707)523-0480 or Peg Anderson (mlanders@sonic.net) or (707)546-4677.

Feedback from participants in the Mastery of Collaborative Practice series:

"The whole team provides an excellent balance and a wonderful integrated set of resources in their joint presentation and unfolding of the day. The preparation really shows!"

"As always, a good class. I gained deeper insight in the problems that can arise as a team."

"You guys are just fantastic. CCRE is blessed." "I am so glad to be doing this. Great course."

"Excellent overall. Very responsive. Lots of clarity. Lively." "Well done. Great teaching style."

"The best workshop I've been to! From the materials to presenters to lunch – it was all done incredibly well. I loved that it was not a huge group and the journaling was an unexpected yet effective approach. Thank you!"

"All of you are excellent trainers. Very knowledgeable, proficient and approachable."

The International Academy of Collaborative Professionals sets standards for training, trainers and practitioners. IACP does not certify or endorse specific trainings. This training program meets the standards of IACP. These standards can be found at www.collaborativepractice.com.